

#8 Daniel 7:8 – Lifting Up the Little Horn Against Lord North

Frederick North, most often known by the title of Lord North, was born on April 13, 1732, and died on August 5, 1792. Lord North was the Prime Minister of Great Britain from January 1770 to March 1782, during the majority of the Revolutionary War. In fact, he resigned in March 1782, as a result of the British defeat at Yorktown on October 19, 1781.

Lord Frederick North, Prime Minister of Great Britain during the Revolutionary War

Key Understanding: Lifting up the little horn against Lord North. The Lord ordained that Lord North be the Prime Minister of Great Britain during the Revolutionary War for the purpose of revealing that the Rise of America was the Rise of the Little Horn of Daniel 7:8, lifting up its horn against the Lord [in the north] in fulfillment of Psalm 75:5-7, as it was rebelling against and declaring its independence from Great Britain and Lord North.

Psalm 75:5-7 (KJV) LIFT NOT UP YOUR HORN on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south [but from the north].

7 But God [in the north] is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

Daniel 7:8 (KJV) I considered the [ten] horns, and, behold, there came up among them another LITTLE HORN [rising against Lord North], before whom there were THREE OF THE FIRST HORNS plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and A MOUTH SPEAKING GREAT THINGS [referring to the Declaration of Independence and its meaning and doctrines, first read publicly by a mouth on 7/8, in fulfillment of Daniel 7:8].
