

#77 Double Her Double – The 7th Double: Double Endings of the German and Austrian Empires, in 1806 and in World War I

Key Understanding: The double victories of France over Germany and Austria. Napoleon's France is victorious over the Prussians (Germans) in 1806, and literally ends the Austrian-led Holy Roman Empire (which came to be known as the First Reich) in 1806. Then with the events of World War I, as a double of what occurred in 1806, France again is victorious over the Prussian German Empire (which came to be known as the Second Reich) and literally ends forever the Austrian Empire (which had been called the Austrian-Hungarian Empire since 1867).

Revelation 18:06 (KJV) Reward her even as she rewarded you, and DOUBLE UNTO HER DOUBLE according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to HER DOUBLE.

World War I. Of course, the Allied victory in World War I can be attributed to more than France, as America, Britain, and France defeated the primary Central Powers of the German Empire, the Austrian Empire, and the Ottoman Empire. [The United States entered the war on April 6, 1917, and the Bolsheviks' takeover of Russia in the October Revolution of 1917 soon led to their negotiating with the Germans and withdrawing Russia from the war.]

The map (on the right) shows the Central Powers in World War I. It also illustrates Germany being 'sandwiched' between its enemies of Russia, on the Eastern Front, and France, on the Western Front, essentially as an effect of the Daniel 2:40 'Legs of Iron' Double Splits – Diocletian's Split and Charlemagne's Split. [This same sandwiching effect would occur in World War II, and would essentially result in the post-war division of Hitler's Third Reich Germany into an occupied East Germany (by the Soviets) and West Germany (occupied for a while in three separate sectors, by America, Britain, and France). But for now, we are stopping at World War I, which can be considered to have brought an official end to the Daniel 2:40 'Legs of Iron' of the Roman Empire.]
