“Peace through Democracy” sounds good to the heart of man, but not to the heart of God.

Question: What is wrong spiritually with the Beast’s doctrine of “Peace through Democracy”?

Key Understanding and

Answer: What is wrong spiritually with the beast’s doctrine of “peace through democracy.” The Sword establishes “Peace through Democracy.” “Peace through Democracy” actually means picking up the Sword – Woodrow Wilson-style – to “War for Democracy.” It is “Peace through War for Democracy,” or “Peace through War for God-given Unalienable Rights.”

1 Chronicles 28:3 (KJV) But God said unto me [King David], THOU SHALT NOT BUILD AN HOUSE FOR MY NAME, BECAUSE THOU HAST BEEN A MAN OF WAR, AND HAST SHED BLOOD.

The Lord’s purpose in emphasizing that David could not build the House of God – because he was a man of war [reference Unsealing #27] – was to show that those who would be a part of the future ‘House of God’ Body of Christ during the Church Age would not truly be so, if they were men of war. Their allegiances and doctrines would still be attached to themselves and their earthly kingdoms, which is exactly the case with the Church warring for the Beast-America, for the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and for so-called ‘God-given Unalienable Rights.’

The central doctrine of the Declaration of Independence, first read publicly on July 8, 1776, by Col. John Nixon, is mankind’s “natural birthright” to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, a supposed “right” given to one by God at one’s natural birth. This is in direct contrast and emphasis to the doctrines of Jesus Christ surrounding the spiritual birth – being ‘born again’ – spoken to Nicodemus in John 3:3.

It is the warring for “Peace through Democracy” that is spiritually destructive to God’s holy people.
