

#313 The Deadly Wound of the Beast – The theory of the Killing (or Death) and Resurrection of Antichrist

Revelation 13:3 (KJV) And I SAW ONE OF HIS HEADS AS IT WERE WOUNDED TO DEATH; AND HIS DEADLY WOUND WAS HEALED; and all the world wondered after the beast.

Key Understanding: *The theory of the killing (or death) and resurrection of antichrist. Probably the most commonly tossed about guess-theory of the Deadly Head Wound of the Beast is that the Antichrist Beast-Man is killed, or dies, and is then resurrected – probably in three days as a counterfeit of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ – causing the entire world to wonder after him. This is found in Christian prophecy books and movies. That guess-theory is not the answer.
