

#322 Healing Blind Men with Clay – The Little Horn has Eyes like the Eyes of Blind Men

John 9:1 (KJV) And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

Most born again believers have remained spiritually blind as to the true gospel and the true meaning of the Cross (as pertains to themselves) through their belief in and abiding in a false doctrine that has to do with the natural births of men. The doctrine that has kept the Church spiritually blind is a doctrine that is in the Declaration of Independence of the United States. The doctrine is that all men are given ‘God-given unalienable (natural birth) rights’ at their natural births.

Key Understanding: It is primarily this man-made doctrine of ‘God-given unalienable (natural birth) rights’ that the Lord is referring to when describing ‘Little Horn’ Beast America in Daniel 7:8 as having “eyes like the eyes of man.” The verse is to be interpreted as the Little Horn having “eyes like the eyes of [the natural born spiritually blind] man.” The story of Jesus healing the man who was blind from his birth in John chapter 9 provides the proper interpretation of “eyes like the eyes of man” in Daniel 7:8.

*Daniel 7:8 (KJV) I considered the [Ten] HORNS, and, behold, there came up among them another LITTLE HORN, before whom there were THREE OF THE FIRST HORNS plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were EYES LIKE THE EYES OF [the natural born spiritually blind] MAN [because of the doctrine of ‘God-given unalienable (natural birth) rights’ in the Declaration of Independence], and A MOUTH SPEAKING GREAT THINGS [referring to the Declaration of Independence and its meaning and doctrines, first read publicly by a mouth (Colonel John Nixon) on 7/8, in fulfillment of Daniel 7:8].*
