

#628 The Boston Stump – The Babylon Stump, part 2, The Nebuchadnezzar Stump points to a Babylon Stump

Let's address the Key Understanding below before we read Daniel 5.

Key Understanding: The Nebuchadnezzar stump points to a Babylon stump. The reason why the Lord wants such a close connection between Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar, clearly understood through the Lord's strong and deliberate comparison of Belshazzar to Nebuchadnezzar in Daniel 5, is because the Lord – through the seen Nebuchadnezzar Stump with roots (Daniel 4:15, 23, 26), which is referring to the fall and dormancy of the man Nebuchadnezzar only, but not the fall and dormancy of the entire kingdom of Babylon – is pointing to an unseen Babylon Stump with roots, which is representing the fall and dormancy of the entire kingdom of Babylon. And, just as the Nebuchadnezzar Stump points to the restoration of Nebuchadnezzar, the unseen Babylon Stump points to the restoration of Babylon – in the form of Babylon the Great, of course.

Daniel 5:22 (KJV) And thou his [Nebuchadnezzar's] son [descendant, actually grandson], O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

There was a Nebuchadnezzar stump.
There was a Babylon stump.
