

#668 The Churchill Saints of Daniel 7:21 – Churchill’s “House of Many Mansions”

Before we come to further conclusions about the prophetic meaning behind and the Lord’s viewpoint of the double events of May 10, 1940, let’s first consider the Lord’s viewpoint of Winston Churchill’s speech of a few months prior, on January 20, 1940, referred to as the “House of Many Mansions” speech.

Some of history’s greatest figures have used biblical analogies. Abraham Lincoln’s “House Divided” speech is an example. The problem is that their usage of the biblical analogy usually supplants the truth for a lie, and/or exchanges what is meant to be applied to the heavenly kingdom for that of an earthly kingdom.

The Lord’s “house of many mansions” is Heaven. When the Lord Jesus Christ spoke of the Father’s house of many mansions, he was speaking of heaven.

John 14:1-3 (KJV) Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 IN MY FATHER’S HOUSE ARE MANY MANSIONS: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Churchill’s “house of many mansions” is the idea of freedom and democracy building heaven on earth. Winston Churchill’s version of a “house of many mansions,” meant to invoke images of heaven, alluded to building a heaven on earth for mankind through governmental systems of democracy.

The “House of Many Mansions” speech was delivered on January 20, 1940, and was addressing the war situation. Here is the closing paragraph.

In the bitter and increasingly exacting conflict which lies before us we are resolved to keep nothing back, and not to be outstripped by any in service to the common cause. Let the great cities of Warsaw, of Prague, of Vienna banish despair even in the midst of their agony. Their liberation is sure. The day will come when the joybells will ring again throughout Europe, and when victorious nations, masters not only of their foes but of themselves, will plan and build in justice, in tradition, and in freedom a house of many mansions where there will be room for all.

Key Understanding: Exchanging earth for heaven. Winston Churchill’s “House of Many Mansions” speech foolishly borrowed from heaven with the promise of a freedom-created heaven on earth whose roots are actually from the pit.
