

#914 The Woman is that Great City Babylon, II – Two James Wilsons prophetically connected with Woodrow Wilson, part 1, The Death of James Wilson on August 26, 1920

The Double Wilsons. In Unsealing #892, we discussed the double Wilsons as concerned the first step of Benjamin Franklin/James Wilson in the building of a single democratic nation Second Babel to the second step of Woodrow Wilson in building a worldwide Second Babel.

James Wilson

Woodrow Wilson

Double James Wilsons. We are now ready to discuss that for the purpose of confirming prophecy, the Lord ordained a first James Wilson to be attached to the first step of the building of a single democratic nation Second Babel, and then ordained a second James Wilson to be attached to the second step of Woodrow Wilson building a worldwide Second Babel.

The first James Wilson. We were introduced to the first James Wilson (above left) in Unsealing #892. He was one of only six men to sign both the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution. He was also a U.S. Supreme Court Justice (1789-1798).

The second James Wilson. The second James Wilson became the longest-serving cabinet secretary – sixteen years – in the history of America. President McKinley named James Wilson of Iowa the Secretary of Agriculture in 1897. He remained the Secretary of Agriculture from March 4, 1897, to March 3, 1913, through the presidencies of Theodore Roosevelt and William Howard Taft. It was only when, in 1912, a Democrat – Woodrow Wilson – was elected president that James Wilson ceased to be in that office, at the age of 78. James Wilson died on August 26, 1920, the very day the 19th Amendment was added to the U.S. Constitution.

James Wilson
(August 16, 1835 – August 26, 1920)

Key Understanding: Two James Wilsons. The Lord ordained double James Wilsons to confirm prophecy. Each was tied to the U.S. Constitution, one more so with Babel, the other more so with Woman.

The first James Wilson and Babel and the U.S. Constitution. The first James Wilson, in close association with Benjamin Franklin, was instrumental in building the single democratic nation Second Babel through the U.S. Constitution of September 17, 1787. We certainly see Babel and the U.S. Constitution with the first James Wilson, because the building of Babel was referred to in Benjamin Franklin's speech that James Wilson read to the Constitutional Convention.

The second James Wilson and Woman and the U.S. Constitution. The second James Wilson died on August 26, 1920, the date the 19th Amendment was added to the U.S. Constitution, in association with the prophetic theme of 'the Woman and the worldwide Second Babel.' Because of this, we see Woman and the U.S. Constitution with the second James Wilson.

Key Understanding (continued): The Lord further showed the link between Woman and Babel through the first and second James Wilsons.

Revelation 17:18 (KJV) And THE WOMAN which thou sawest IS THAT GREAT CITY [Babylon the Great], which reigneth over the kings of the earth.* [This is easily connected to the second James Wilson, who died on August 26, 1920.]

The Woman of Revelation 17:18 is tied to Babel of Genesis 11:1 . . .

Genesis 11:1 (KJV) And THE WHOLE EARTH WAS OF ONE LANGUAGE, and ONE SPEECH* [Woodrow Wilson's April 2, 1917, 'The World Must Be Made Safe for Democracy' Speech]. [This is easily connected to the first James Wilson, who read Benjamin Franklin's 'Babel' speech on September 17, 1787.]
