

#1012 The Whore's Latter Rain – Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory of the Coming of the Lord: The Days of the Lord as exercised by the Harlot Church at the Former Rain-Latter Reign of the April 9, 1865, end of the Civil War, and the Latter Rain-Latter Reign of the April 6 [= 9], 1917, U.S. entry into World War I

The Battle Hymn of the Republic

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord

He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;

He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword:

His truth is marching on.

(Chorus)

Glory, glory, hallelujah!

Glory, glory, hallelujah!

Glory, glory, hallelujah!

His truth is marching on.

Key Understanding: Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord. The very first line of the famous Civil War song “The Battle Hymn of the Republic” illustrates the doctrinal and spiritual problems with the former rain of April 9, 1865, at the end of the Civil War, and Joel's Latter Rain at the April 6 [= 9], 1917, beginning of World War I. Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord represents the spirit of the Woman, the Great Whore, reigning over the kings of the earth (Revelation 17:18), and, more precisely, wielding the sword as if it was “the coming of the Lord.” It represents a Second Coming of the Lord, in judgment. Both the April 9, 1865, end of the Civil War and the April 6, 1917, beginning of World War I represent the Day of the Lord, exercised through a sword-bearing Church, with the antichrist figures of Abraham Lincoln and Woodrow Wilson, not Jesus Christ, leading them.

Revelation 17:18 (KJV) And THE [Scarlet] WOMAN which thou sawest IS THAT GREAT CITY [Babylon the Great], WHICH REIGNETH OVER THE KINGS OF THE EARTH [by Making the World Safe for Democracy].

Abraham Lincoln and Woodrow Wilson represent the sword-bearing Church – or rather the sword-bearing Harlot Church, the Church-ill – rendering judgment, on April 9, 1865, the time of the Whore’s Former Rain-Latter Reign, and on April 6 [= 9], 1917, the time of the Whore’s Latter Rain-Latter Reign.

But these events were also representing the Lord’s pre-judgment upon the Church. That is discussed in the next Unsealing.
