Los Angeles and San Francisco. Los Angeles, California, and San Francisco, California, have always been joined together thematically, often competitively, for Los Angeles is the dominant and representative city of Southern California, while San Francisco is the dominant and representative city of Northern California.

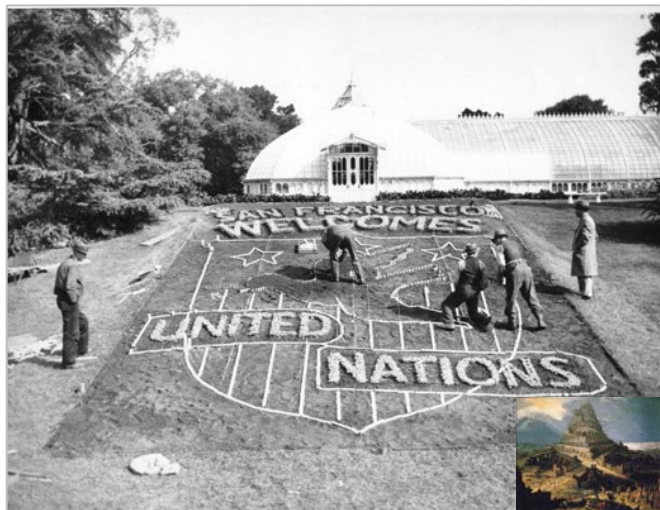

When Major League Baseball expanded in 1958, the two cities were again paired together when the Brooklyn Dodgers moved west and became the Los Angeles Dodgers and the New York Giants moved west and became the San Francisco Giants.

1 April 9, 1906, the 'weird babel' in Los Angeles. As reported by the Los Angeles Times on April 18, 1906, "weird babel" had broken out in Los Angeles. [The reporter spelled 'babble' as 'babel' to purposely connect the "speaking in tongues" to Genesis 11.]

2 April 6 [= 9], 1917, the Babel City of San Francisco. Woodrow Wilson's vision of a Babel Partnership of Democratic Nations eventually became the League of Nations and its successor, the United Nations. The 'Babel' United Nations was birthed in San Francisco. On April 25, 1945, the United Nations Conference on International Organization began in San Francisco, even before Germany and Japan had surrendered. The 50 nations represented at the conference signed the United Nations Charter on June 26, 1945. The United Nations officially came into existence on October 24, 1945.

Key Understanding: Two Babel Cities. April 9, 1906, represents the ‘weird babel’ in Los Angeles, California, and April 6 [= 9], 1917, represents the eventual birth of the ‘Babel’ United Nations in San Francisco. [In short, Los Angeles and San Francisco are tied to the Two Olive Trees of April 9, 1906, and April 6 [= 9], 1917.]

Zechariah 4:1-3 (KJV) And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold A CANDLESTICK ALL OF GOLD, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And TWO OLIVE TREES by it [the April 9, 1906, Latter Rain Pentecostal movement, associated with ‘weird babel’ in Los Angeles, and the April 6 [= 9], 1917, Joel’s Latter Rain U.S. entry into World War I, associated with the birth of the ‘Babel’ United Nations in San Francisco], one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.
