

#1044 The Latter Rain of the Cross, with the Holy Spirit – The Half-Blind Church, part 1, Born of the Spirit, but not of Water, so they see “One Nation Under God,” but are blinded to the heavenly kingdom of God

*John 3:3 (KJV) Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be BORN AGAIN, he cannot SEE the kingdom of God.

The half-blind Christian. In John 3:3 the Lord speaks of a “born again” person – meaning a “born of the spirit” person – seeing the kingdom of God. The seeing aspect is fascinating due to the fact that if that person does not follow through on his Christianity and become born “of water” (John 3:5), he essentially remains spiritually half-blind, rather than possessing the full spiritual eyes of God.

He has eyes for “One Nation Under God,” and believes in the necessity of bearing the sword for that “One Nation Under God” and its Declaration of Independence. Because of that false Christianity, even though being born “of the spirit,” he essentially retains “eyes like the eyes of [spiritually blind and fallen] man,” (Daniel 7:8).

Daniel 7:8 (KJV) I considered the [ten] horns, and, behold, there came up among them another LITTLE HORN, before whom there were THREE OF THE FIRST HORNS plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were EYES LIKE THE EYES OF [spiritually blind and fallen] MAN, and A MOUTH SPEAKING GREAT THINGS [referring to the Declaration of Independence and its meaning and doctrines, first read publicly by a mouth on 7/8, in fulfillment of Daniel 7:8].

‘Natural birthrights of man’ is a big problem. A specific problem is that the “born again” man is generally duped by the false doctrine in the U.S. Declaration of Independence of the natural birthrights of man to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. The ‘Age of Reason’ natural birthrights doctrine has roots which are directly associated with one’s first birth, the natural birth, when one is born spiritually blind.

The Declaration of Independence came from the Age of Reason, not from the mind of Christ. [Reference Unsealing #902.] It makes the Christian half-blind.

Key Understanding: *The half-blind church. Thus, when one becomes born again, or born of the spirit, yet refuses to allow the watering of the Holy Spirit to deliver him out of the wicked doctrine of the natural birthrights of man, the Lord leaves the man in the spiritual state of existing as a spiritually half-blind born again believer, because he is stuck in the mud of a false doctrine that has to do with the first birth – the spiritually blind birth – of a man. The acceptance of the doctrine of the natural birthrights of man keeps a man who is born of the spirit spiritually half-blind, unable to be truly seated in heaven as a believer on earth, and thus at total risk of not possessing proper heavenly kingdom citizenship to enter into the kingdom of God.
