General Horatio Gates

Matthew 16:18 (KJV) And I say also unto thee, THAT THOU ART PETER, AND UPON THIS ROCK I WILL BUILD MY CHURCH; and THE GATES OF HELL SHALL NOT PREVAIL AGAINST IT.

The Battle of Saratoga. The Battle of Saratoga is recognized as one of the fifteen most decisive battles in world history, and is considered the turning point of the American Revolution. The American victory on October 17, 1777, led directly to France’s recognition of the independence of the United States, as well as France’s entry into the war as a decisive military ally of the struggling Americans.

Gates vs. John Burgoyne. The victorious American general at the Battle of Saratoga was Horatio Gates. The defeated British general at the Battle of Saratoga was John Burgoyne, who earlier at one time – he had since sailed to England and returned to America – arrived on the Cerberus, in a prophetic depiction of Great Britain being represented as the Gates of Hell attempting to prevail against America.

Key Understanding: American General Horatio Gates defeated British General John Burgoyne at the Battle of Saratoga to fulfill the counterfeit of the Gates of Hell not prevailing against ‘Kingdom of Heaven’ America. The defeat of Cerberus’s John Burgoyne by Horatio Gates at the pivotal Battle of Saratoga on October 17, 1777, prophetically represented (a) the lie, or counterfeit, that ‘Gates of Hell’ Great Britain would not prevail against the Lord’s ‘Kingdom of Heaven’ America (Body of Americans), representing the counterfeit Body of Christ, and (b) the truth, that Horatio Gates himself was representing the Gates of Hell that were spiritually prevailing against the sword-carrying Church-ill and Body of Americans, but that would not spiritually prevail against the true cross-carrying ‘Kingdom of Heaven’ Church.
