

#1188 The Patmos Revolution – The American Revolution and September 14, 1814, and the Greek Revolution and September 14, 1814

We are progressing from The Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven to The Patmos Revolution.

On September 14, 1814, in the city of Odessa (in modern Ukraine, on the Black Sea), three Greek men founded Filiki Eteria (Philike Hetairia), meaning Friendly Company, a secret organization whose purpose was to overthrow the Ottoman Empire’s rule over Greece. The Friendly Company organized the movement against the Ottoman Turks that led to the full scale Greek War for Independence, also known as the Greek Revolution. The Greeks declared their independence on March 25, 1821, and their war for liberation from the Ottoman Turks lasted a decade. More details on the history of the Friendly Company and its birth of the Greek War for Independence will be covered in the doc attached to Unsealing [#1196.]

Key Understanding #1: September 14, 1814, and Patmos. This series is titled The Patmos Revolution, in part a reference to the Greek Revolution against the Ottoman Turks, since one of the three men who founded Filiki Eteria, Emmanuel Ksanthos (Xanthos), was from the island of Patmos. The Apostle John received the contents of the Book of Revelation from the Lord when he was on Patmos. The purpose of this series is to explain why and how the Greek Revolution against the Turks was connected to the island of Patmos and the date of September 14, 1814, and the significance of that as concerns the Book of Revelation.

Key Understanding #2: September 14, 1814, and the United States of America. During the 2nd American War for Independence, on September 14, 1814 – the day of the morning of the dawn’s early light of Francis Scott Key’s “The Star-Spangled Banner” – three Greek men founded Filiki Eteria, which led to the successful Greek War for Independence against the Ottoman Turks.

September 14, 1814
Greek War for Independence

Oath of initiation into Filiki Eteria

September 14, 1814
Second American War for Independence

Francis Scott Key’s day of the dawn’s early light

Thus, the 2nd American War for Independence is enormously tied to September 14, 1814, because of the writing of “The Star-Spangled Banner.” In turn, “The Star-Spangled Banner” – sung to the tune of “To Anacreon in Heaven,” which honors Bacchus’s vine – prophetically illustrates that the rise of America’s democracy was the rise of ancient Greek “vine of the earth” democracy. [Reference Unsealing #1183.] Meanwhile, and amazingly so, the Greek War for Independence was birthed on the exact date of September 14, 1814, because that was the date of the birth of the Friendly Company, which organized the movement for the successful overthrow of Ottoman rule.

Revelation 1:9 (KJV) I JOHN, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, WAS IN THE ISLE CALLED PATMOS, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

“To Anacreon in Heaven” (chorus)

*And besides I'll instruct you
Like me, to entwine
The Myrtle of Venus
With Bacchus's Vine.*

< Previous

Main Page and List of Unsealing Summaries

Next >>