

#1252 America as Media-Persia – Kings of the East, part 3, The Battle of Armageddon

Because the Allies were playing the role of a second Daniel 2:39 Media-Persia, they were also playing the role of a latter day(s) Kings of the East who were defeating the Ottoman Turks, symbolically drying up the Euphrates River.

*Revelation 16:12-16 (KJV) And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon THE GREAT RIVER EUPHRATES; AND THE WATER THEREOF WAS DRIED UP, THAT THE WAY OF THE KINGS OF THE EAST MIGHT BE PREPARED. [The Allies in World War I were in the role of a second Media-Persia, defeating the Ottoman Turks, symbolically drying up the Euphrates River, and freeing the Promised Land for the Jews to eventually return.]*

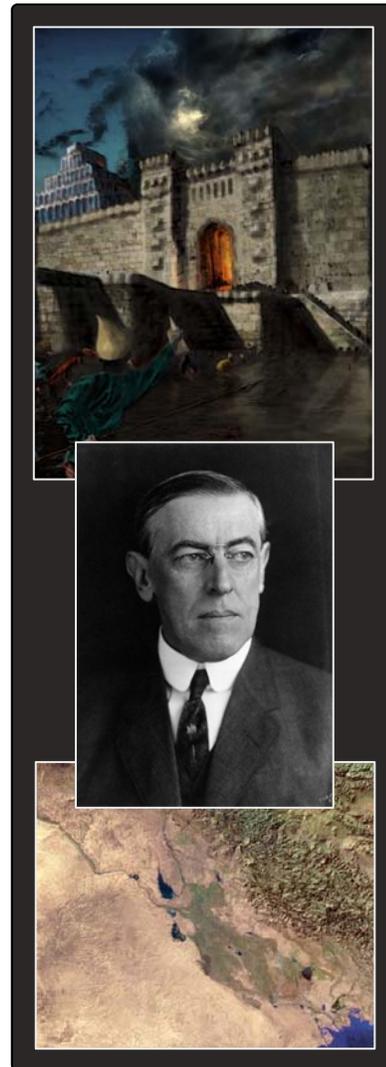

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

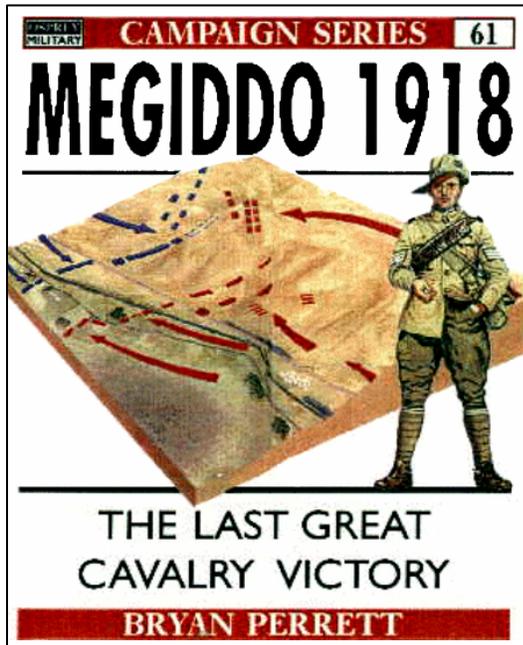

16 AND HE GATHERED THEM TOGETHER INTO A PLACE CALLED IN THE HEBREW TONGUE ARMAGEDDON.

Question: If the events of World War I are actually a part of the fulfillment of Revelation 16:12, are events of World War I also a fulfillment of Revelation 16:16 and the Battle of Armageddon?

Key Understanding and Answer: A major battle during World War I between the British – led by General Edmund Allenby – and the Ottoman Turks occurred at Megiddo, the place the Bible calls Armageddon. The victory by the Allies at Megiddo, and its subsequent exploitation, was the culminating victory in the Allied conquest of Palestine during World War I, removing the Promised Land from the control of the Ottoman Turks for the first time in 400 years.

Megiddo, located on a hill about 16 miles southeast of Haifa. The location made Megiddo strategically important.

It will be explained later just how much the Battle of Megiddo in World War I has to do with the fulfillment of Revelation 16:16 [and why and how the dragon, beast, and false prophet are a part of the passage].

The Battle of Megiddo, 19-25 September 1918, was the climactic battle of the British invasion of Palestine of 1917-1918. It is also famous as the last great cavalry victory. The cavalry advance flowed past the ancient site of Megiddo on the night of September 19-20, and thus the name was adopted for the entire battle.

Here is #1252–Doc 1, which is about the pivotal Battle of Megiddo in World War I.
