

#1256 America as Media-Persia – The World War I stage of the “Media-Persian” Deliverance of the Jews to the Promised Land (through the defeat of the Ottoman Turks and the November 2, 1917, Balfour Declaration), and the World War II stage of the “Media-Persian” Deliverance of the Jews to the Promised Land (through the defeat of Nazi Germany/Japan and the May 14, 1948, establishment of the nation of Israel)

In the establishment of Israel as a nation, we see . . .

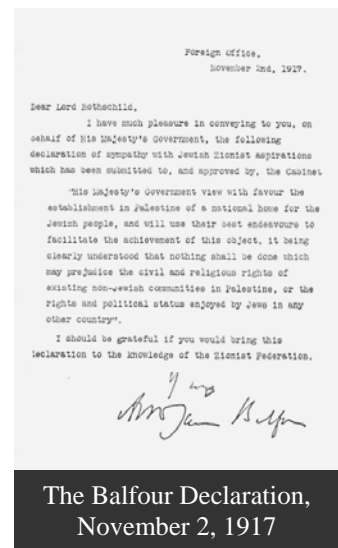

Key Understanding: The World War I stage of the “Media-Persian” deliverance of the Jews to the Promised Land (through the defeat of the Ottoman Turks and the November 2, 1917, Balfour Declaration), and the World War II stage of the “Media-Persian” deliverance of the Jews to the Promised Land (through the defeat of Nazi Germany/Japan and the May 14, 1948, establishment of the nation of Israel).

The November 2, 1917, Balfour Declaration

Arthur James Balfour

In the midst of World War I, the Balfour Declaration was made in a November 2, 1917, letter from British Foreign Secretary Arthur James Balfour to Lord Rothschild (Walter Rothschild, 2nd Baron Rothschild), a leader of the British Jewish Community. The letter stated the position agreed upon at a British Cabinet meeting on October 31, 1917, that the British government – upon the defeat of the Ottoman Turks – supported Zionist plans for a Jewish “national home” in Palestine, with the condition that nothing should be done which might prejudice the rights of existing communities there.
