

#1258 America as Media-Persia – World War II: Viewing Germany/Japan together as concerns the atomic bombs and the deliverance of the Jews to Israel

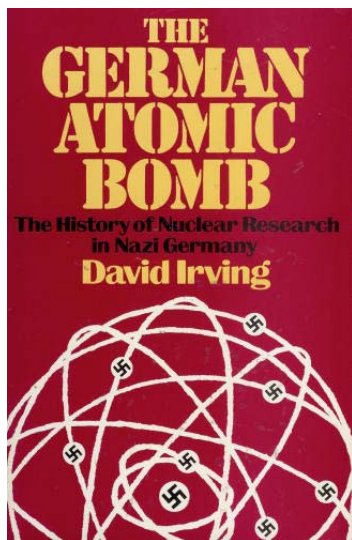

Germany and Japan were major allies during World War II. In fact, that is a major reason why there was a European Theatre of the war and a Pacific Theatre of the war. The United States fought in both theatres.

It is prophetically important to view Germany and Japan together as concerns the atomic bombs and the deliverance of the Jews. This is because there was a very direct natural relationship between the defeat of Nazi Germany, perpetrators of the Holocaust, and the deliverance of the Jews to the newly formed state of Israel in the Promised Land, but not so much of a direct natural relationship between the Pu-239 atomic bomb defeat of Japan and the deliverance of the Jews to Israel.

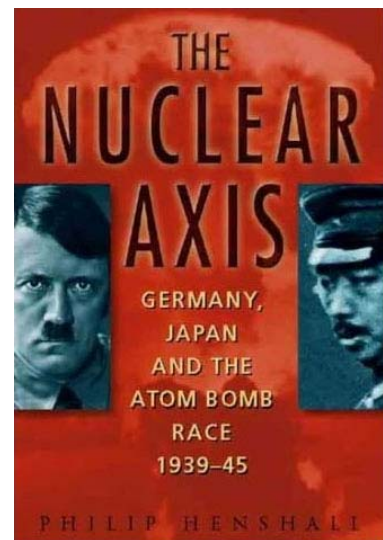

Key Understanding: However, even though Germany had already surrendered in the European Theatre on May 8, 1945, the Lord would like us to see the August 9, 1945, Pu-239 (Media-Persia) atomic bomb as ending the war with Germany/Japan (including Germany with Japan in the equation), so that a more direct prophetic relationship (described in the paragraph above) of a Media-Persian defeat of Nazi Germany and the deliverance of the Jews to Israel is realized.

Even though the atomic bombs were dropped on Japan and not Germany, the nation of Germany was actually totally connected to the atomic bomb. [We are making these points to again draw the important prophetic relationship between the Pu-239 Media-Persian bomb and the deliverance of the Jews to Israel.] The race to develop an atomic bomb during World War II was primarily between the United States and Germany. In addition, the United States would have willingly used the atomic bomb(s) on Germany had Germany not surrendered before the bombs were ready.

Several books have been written about the German, and even the Japanese, efforts toward building an atomic bomb, including the two which are pictured.

and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;*
