

#1361 America as Media-Persia, II – The Death of NBC’s David Bloom, part 1, The war between Media and Saddam Hussein’s regime of pretender Babylon Iraq

*Isaiah 40:6-8 (NIV) A voice says, “Cry out.” And I said, “What shall I cry?” “ALL MEN ARE LIKE GRASS, AND ALL THEIR GLORY IS LIKE THE FLOWERS OF THE FIELD.

7 The grass withers and the flowers fall, because the breath of the LORD blows on them. Surely the people are grass.

8 The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God stands forever.”

The death of NBC’s David Bloom. NBC’s David Bloom, who had served as White House correspondent for the network and had been co-anchor of the weekend editions of “Today” since March 2000, died in Iraq on April 6, 2003, of an apparent pulmonary embolism. Bloom was embedded with the U.S. Army’s 3rd Infantry Division outside Baghdad. He and his crew were covering the war from a specially modified tank recovery vehicle that allowed the broadcasting of live reports, with high-quality video, as the American armored column he was traveling with fought its way northward through the Iraqi desert. Bloom’s death was mourned on all networks.

Key Understanding: With the media’s NBC still representing America as the home of the Peacock Throne, the Lord ordained the death of David Bloom to emphasize the war between the United States as the second (but counterfeit) Media-Persia and the Saddam Hussein regime of pretender Babylon Iraq.
