

#1383 America as Media-Persia and the Building of Israel – The role of U.S. Secretary of State James Baker in (i) the defeat of Saddam Hussein’s Iraq in the 1991 Gulf War and (ii) the interrelated September 13, 1993, accord between the Palestinians and Israel, part 2, The 1991 Madrid Conference

Key Understanding: U.S. Secretary of State Jim Baker’s convening of the 1991 Middle East peace conference in Madrid, Spain, (i) was a direct result of the 1991 Gulf War (which will be explained in the next few Unsealings) and (ii) was a steppingstone toward the September 13, 1993, accord between Yassir Arafat’s PLO and Yitzhak Rabin’s Israel.

Here is #1383–Doc 1, which is about the 1991 Madrid Conference, explaining that it was a first step in leading to better communication among Middle East participants that would lead toward the eventual September 13, 1993, accord between Yassir Arafat’s PLO and Yitzhak Rabin’s Israel.
