

#1410 The real Antichrist New World Order – The Bush (the 41st) Administration’s ‘New World Order’ came with the demise of the Soviet Union and the further democratization of the world, part I

Though we will be returning to more extensively cover the meaning of the September 13, 1993, accord between the Palestinians and Israel, we have completed the series The relationship between Daniel 2:42 and U.N. Resolution 242 and are taking this opportunity to briefly return to the understanding of The real Antichrist New World Order.

The New World Order. Christians for years have often used the words ‘New World Order’ to describe the antichrist’s political system, though scripture does not use that specific terminology. What is meant by ‘New World Order’ is that the antichrist will form a new type of governmental system – with himself as the head – that is different than the governmental systems of the present age. It is thought that it will constitute a “new political order for the world,” or a ‘New World Order.’ Generally, images of antichrist tyranny and antichrist dictatorship – but a tyranny and dictatorship that would also bring a ‘false peace’ to the world – are associated with the much-feared New World Order. For this reason, the combination of Christianity and democracy is generally thought to be standing in the way of the arrival of an antichrist New World Order.

The real Antichrist New World Order

The Bush Administration’s New World Order. Thus, when President George H. W. Bush, the 41st, and his administration actually used the phrase ‘New World Order’ to describe what they hoped would occur through the fall of the Soviet Union and the advancement of democracy worldwide, some alarms sounded within the midst of deceived Christianity characterizing the phrase, which was used by the President and others, as a veiled reference to the much-feared New World Order of the antichrist. In recent Unsealings #1386 and #1393, the excerpt below was shared from Jim Baker’s book, The Politics of Diplomacy: Revolution, War and Peace, 1989-1992. Baker explains what was meant by the phrase ‘New World Order.’

“There was little doubt that the environment in the region had been drastically altered [through the 1991 Gulf War]. It was also apparent that the entire world suddenly wanted to get closer to the United States. The Soviet Empire was gone. The principles and values of the American experience – democracy and free markets – were being embraced around the globe as never before. It seemed as though everyone wanted to be America's best friend. Although we didn't do a good job of explaining the concept, this worldwide advance of democratic ideals represented what we really meant by the phrase 'New World Order' – not the absence of regional conflicts, as most interpreted it. Our status as the last remaining superpower had been enhanced by the war. We had tremendous strength and credibility around the world, and stood at the zenith of our influence in the Middle East. I believed it was time to seize the moment. If we hesitated [in attempting to bring accord to the Middle East], we would lose an historic opportunity.” (p. 414-415, The Politics of Diplomacy: Revolution, War and Peace, 1989-1992)

Key Understanding: *The real antichrist new world order.
The meaning behind the Bush administration's use of the phrase 'New World Order' was simply the worldwide advancement of democratic ideals precipitated by the demise of the Soviet Union and other events. The antichrist's New World Order happens to be exactly that – the New World Order of democracy brought forth by the Beast out of the Pit in Revelation 17:08.

Revelation 17:08 (KJV) THE BEAST that thou sawest was, and is not; and SHALL ASCEND OUT OF THE BOTTOMLESS PIT, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.
