#1572 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The series of 4's (fours) from Alexander the Great to Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 4b, The prophecy surrounding the division of Alexander the Great's Empire into Four Kingdoms – the Kingdoms of Cassander, Lysimachus, Ptolemy, and Seleucus: Daniel 7:6, Daniel 8:8 and 8:22, Daniel 11:4

The next few Unsealings will cover the larger passages containing the verses that prophesy the division of Alexander the Great's Empire into 4 (four) kingdoms.

However, the purpose of this Unsealing is to list the specific verses that prophesy of what was the result of the Battle of Ipsus in 301 B.C. – the division of Alexander the Great's Empire into 4 (four) kingdoms.

Key Understanding: The division of Alexander the Great's empire into four (4) kingdoms. Daniel 7:6, Daniel 8:8 and 8:22, and Daniel 11:4 are the specific verses that prophesy the division of Alexander the Great's Empire into 4 (four) kingdoms.

In the passage of Daniel 7

Daniel 7:6 (KJV) After this I beheld, and lo ANOTHER, LIKE A LEOPARD [Alexander the Great's Grecian Empire], which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; THE BEAST HAD ALSO FOUR HEADS [the break-up of Alexander the Great's Empire into the 4 (four) kingdoms of Ptolemy, Seleucus, Cassander, and Lysimachus];
and dominion was given to it.

Alexander the Great's 4 Successors

Ptolemy I ruled Levant and Egypt

Seleucus I Nicator ruled Mesopotamia and Iran

Cassander ruled Greece

Lysimachus ruled Thrace

In the passage of Daniel 8

Daniel 8:8 (KJV) Therefore THE HE GOAT [Alexander the Great's Grecian Empire] WAXED VERY GREAT [which is why the Lord ordained Alexander to be known to history as 'the Great']: and when he was strong, THE GREAT HORN WAS BROKEN [Alexander the Great's premature death in 323 B.C.]; and for it [from it] came up FOUR NOTABLE ONES [the 4 (four) kingdoms of Ptolemy, Seleucus, Cassander, and Lysimachus] TOWARD THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN.

Cassander ruled Greece

Lysimachus ruled Thrace

[Note: Daniel 8:21-22 below serve as the explanation of Daniel 8:8 above.]

Daniel 8:21-22 (KJV) And THE ROUGH GOAT IS THE KING OF GRECIA [the empire of Alexander the Great]: and THE GREAT HORN THAT IS BETWEEN HIS EYES IS THE FIRST KING [Alexander the Great].

22 Now that being broken [Alexander the Great's death in 323 B.C.], whereas four stood up for it, FOUR KINGDOMS SHALL STAND UP OUT OF THE NATION [the 4 (four) kingdoms of Ptolemy, Seleucus, Cassander, and Lysimachus, specifically fulfilled through the Battle of Ipsus, in 301 B.C., the final year of the 4th century B.C.], but not in his power [the 4 (four) kingdoms would fall short of attaining the same level of strength and power possessed by Alexander's united Macedonian Empire].

In the passage of Daniel 11

Daniel 11:3-4 (KJV) And A MIGHTY KING [Alexander the Great] SHALL STAND UP, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, HIS KINGDOM SHALL BE BROKEN [Alexander the Great's premature death in 323 B.C.], AND SHALL BE DIVIDED TOWARD THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN [the 4 (four) kingdoms of Ptolemy, Seleucus, Cassander, and Lysimachus, specifically fulfilled through the Battle of Ipsus, in 301 B.C., the final year of the 4th century B.C.; compare with the wording in Daniel 8:8]; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled [the 4 (four) kingdoms would fall short of attaining the same level of strength and power possessed by Alexander's united Macedonian Empire]: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.
