Manhattan. Manhattan is one of five boroughs – Manhattan, the Bronx, Queens, Brooklyn, and Staten Island – that make up New York City. Manhattan is actually Manhattan Island, a long narrow island bordered by the Hudson River on the west and the East River on the east.

The Manhattan Project. The Manhattan Project was originally headquartered in an office at the federal building at 90 Church Street in Manhattan. That is why it became known as the Manhattan Project, even though the project was based only briefly on Manhattan Island. Though it involved more than thirty different research and production sites, the Manhattan Project was largely carried out in three secret scientific sites: Los Alamos, New Mexico; Oak Ridge, Tennessee; and Hanford, Washington.

The England-Netherlands (Anglo-Dutch) Wars. The Netherlands and England fought three naval wars between 1652 and 1674 – the First Anglo-Dutch War (1652-1654), the Second Anglo-Dutch War (1665-1667), and the Third Anglo-Dutch War (1672-1674). In 1664, English warships sailed into what is now New York harbor and forced Dutch governor Peter Stuyvesant to surrender New Amsterdam. This resulted in the Second Anglo-Dutch War (1665-1667). The Dutch regained the colony on August 9, 1673, but then ceded it to England under the terms of the Treaty of Westminster of 1674. From this point onward, the colony would never again exist under the colors of the Dutch flag, and it was therefore at this time that the name of the city was permanently changed from New Amsterdam to New York.

Key Understanding: Manhattan and 1674. The Lord ordained the Manhattan Project at Los Alamos, New Mexico, to have the address of Box 1663 in Santa Fe, New Mexico, because the island of Manhattan permanently received the name of New York in 1674. $1663 + 11 = 1674$. The number 11 is often associated with Babylon (because of Genesis 11 and Babel – reference Unsealing #1467), and the Manhattan Project at Box 1663 developed the U-238 atomic bomb that was dropped on Hiroshima, which designated America as the Second Babylon, or Babylon the Great.

Daniel 2:38 (KJV) And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. THOU [Babylon] ART THIS HEAD OF GOLD.
