

#1693 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – Hitler (vs. the U.S.) waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 11, What was occurring regarding Adolf Hitler and Greece on Epiphany, January 6, 1941 (continued)

Below is #1693–Doc 1, which is about Mussolini’s Italian campaign against Greece (October 28, 1940 – March 1941). It is a long article, but it is important to read it in its entirety.

In the midst of the article are these excerpts (below), explaining that British Prime Minister Winston Churchill announced his decision to the British chiefs of staff that Britain would make Greece a priority in Britain’s attempt to protect Greece from its current invasion by Italy and its impending invasion by Germany:

The British now faced the strategic problem of having to choose between exploitation of their North African successes [or] stiffening Greek resistance. On 6 January 1941, Churchill told the chiefs of staff that it would be better to delay exploiting the situation in North Africa in order to help Greece seize the port of Valona and avoid military defeat. Churchill therefore informed [British Field Marshal] Wavell that Tobruk would be taken, but follow-up operations would depend on the situation in Greece, which would be the priority.

A British military mission arrived in Athens on 22 February to study the situation and propose shipment by sea of an expeditionary corps to Greece. The following day, the Greeks accepted the offer, whereon Britain dispatched some of its best North African forces to Greece: 60,000 men with 240 field artillery pieces, 32 medium artillery guns, 192 anti-aircraft guns, and 142 tanks under Lieutenant General Henry Maitland Wilson.

First Italian Offensive
October 28 – November 13, 1940

Greek Counter-Offensive
November 14, 1940 – March 1941

Key Understanding: The looming (April 6, 1941) German invasion of Greece, which followed the (October 28, 1940) Italian invasion of Greece, had to do with Adolf Hitler and Nazi Germany as a competing second Syria waxing great toward the south, and toward the east, with Greece at the center of it all, in the competing latter day(s) fulfillment of Daniel 8:9.

Daniel 8:9 (KJV) And OUT OF ONE OF THEM [the competing second Syria, Germany] CAME FORTH A LITTLE HORN [Nazi Germany's Adolf Hitler], *which waxed EXCEEDING GREAT, toward THE SOUTH, and toward THE EAST, and toward THE PLEASANT LAND.
