

#1698 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – Hitler (vs. the U.S.) waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 16, The historical link between and coupling of Hitler’s April 6, 1941, invasion of Greece (Operation Marita) and Hitler’s June 22, 1941, invasion of the Soviet Union (Operation Barbarossa) occurred because of the prophetic coupling of Hitler as a second Antiochus IV Epiphanes waxing great toward the South and toward the East

Key Understanding #1: There was an historical relationship between and coupling of Hitler’s April 6, 1941, invasion of Greece (Operation Marita) and Hitler’s June 22, 1941, invasion of the Soviet Union (Operation Barbarossa). That historical link between and coupling of Operation Marita and Operation Barbarossa occurred in fulfillment of the prophetic coupling of Hitler as a second Antiochus IV Epiphanes waxing great toward the south and toward the east.

Operation Marita
The Invasion of Greece

TOWARD THE SOUTH ↓

*Daniel 8:9 (KJV) And OUT OF ONE OF THEM [the competing second Syria, Germany] CAME FORTH A LITTLE HORN [Nazi Germany’s Adolf Hitler], which waxed EXCEEDING GREAT, toward THE SOUTH [Greece, through Operation Marita], and toward THE EAST [the Soviet Union, through Operation Barbarossa], *and toward THE PLEASANT LAND.

BARBAROSSA
1941

HITLER'S WAR OF ANNIHILATION

TOWARD THE EAST →

GEOFFREY MEGARGEE

Key Understanding #2: Here is the abbreviated version of the historical relationship between Operation Marita and Operation Barbarossa: Originally scheduled for May 1941,

Operation Barbarossa did not commence until June 22, 1941, due to German troops being diverted to the fighting in Greece and the Balkans.

Operation Marita's impact on Operation Barbarossa. The normal historical analysis of the relationship between Nazi Germany's April 6, 1941, invasion of Greece to the south and its subsequent June 22, 1941, invasion of the Soviet Union to the east is that the invasion of Greece to the south – which came about due to Mussolini's failure to subdue Greece – delayed the May 1941 originally planned start date of Operation Barbarossa. The 5-week delay became crucial because instead of Hitler's troops fighting their way to arrive near Moscow, Leningrad, and Stalingrad in milder weather, it would be the cold and early Russian winter that would greet them. The most extreme and yet often taken position on this by historians is that this meant the difference between the success or the failure of the planned (and ultimately failed) German invasion of Russia, which in turn meant the difference between defeat or victory for the Allies in World War II.

Here is #1698–Doc 1, an excellent (and longer) article titled Operation Barbarossa: Balkan Diversion. It is interesting (but not necessary) reading to see the relationship between Germany waxing great toward the south in Operation Marita and toward the east in Operation Barbarossa.

Click here for #1698–Doc 1

Click here for the Original Source of #1698–Doc 1

<< Previous

Main Page and List of Unsealing Summaries

Next >>