

#1790 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 49, Irving Berlin and God Bless America: The Great Hurricane of September 21, 1938, was prophetic as the coming mighty American Wind, but was also prophetically pointing to the strength of the Hitler/Germany Wind as a Great Hurricane blowing against Czechoslovakia on that same day, September 21, 1938

Review (from Unsealings #1787 and #1789): Not only were the Revelation 17:10 double 7th kingdoms of Germany and the Soviet Union prophetically gone with the wind at the hands of the United States of America in World War II and the Cold War, respectively, but the Lord ordained a specific hurricane to represent each gone with the wind event. The Lord ordained the hurricane of September 21-22, 1938, which struck New England and which came to be called by many the Long Island Express, to represent the U.S. wind carrying away Nazi Germany in World War II. However . . .

Key Understanding: Two great hurricanes of September 21, 1938. The Lord also ordained the September 21, 1938, Great New England Hurricane to prophetically point to the mighty Hitler/Germany wind that was ready to sweep Europe and envelope the world in World War II. On September 21, 1938, the same day as the Great New England Hurricane, the entire world watched as Czechoslovakia, under intense pressure to avoid war with Germany, agreed to cede its Sudeten territory to Germany. The subsequent Munich Agreement, signed a week later, merely spelled out the details of the annexation of the Sudetenland to Germany.

Here is #1790–Doc 1, about U.S. storm disasters. Focus solely on the hurricane of 1938. Notice the remarkable emphasis on the Czech-German crisis in Europe occurring at the same time: “Neville Chamberlain’s appeasement of Adolf Hitler in Europe dominates headlines before and after the storm.”

This subject matter will be continued in the next Unsealing, but first, below is a repeat of Unsealing #666, which explained how the Czech-German crisis (the parts bolded and underlined below) was a part of the events leading to World War II, as well as the political demise of Neville Chamberlain and the rise of Winston Churchill. Note the time frame – September 1938.

#666 The Churchill Saints of Daniel 7:21 – May 10, 1940: Churchill vs. Hitler, part 1, Churchill becomes Prime Minister

Two interrelated events took place simultaneously on May 10, 1940. The first was that Winston Churchill became the wartime Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Friday, May 10, 1940: Winston Churchill becomes the wartime Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Neville Chamberlain, a Conservative, became Prime Minister of Great Britain in 1937. Chamberlain thought he could deal with Hitler. In 1938, Hitler seized Austria and then demanded part of Czechoslovakia. Hitler claimed that the government of Czechoslovakia was unfair to the German residents of the Sudetenland (part of Czechoslovakia) and that their land should be a part of Germany. He had prepared his troops for a military take-over of the region.

Neville Chamberlain attempted to reach a peaceful settlement. He twice met with Hitler in September 1938, but the negotiations failed. [Note for this Unsealing #1790: What would become known as the Great New England Hurricane of September 21, 1938, was traveling westward across the Atlantic Ocean toward the United States during Chamberlain's first meeting with Hitler on September 15, 1938, when Hitler stated his demand for the Sudetenland with its large German population. The hurricane would continue its march across the Atlantic toward the United States as the crisis continued building in the ensuing days.] Finally, Chamberlain suggested a conference including French Premier Edouard Daladier and Benito Mussolini of Italy. It took place in Munich on September 29-30 and resulted in the Munich Agreement.

Neville Chamberlain, Edouard Daladier, Adolf Hitler, and Benito Mussolini in Munich, September 1938

British P.M. Neville Chamberlain declares, after appeasing Adolf Hitler, "My good friends, for the second time in our history, a British Prime Minister has returned from Germany bringing peace with honour. I believe it is peace for our time."

The pact allowed Germany to occupy the Sudetenland. In return, Hitler promised that the Sudetenland would be the “last territorial claim I have to make in Europe.” The Munich Agreement at first seemed to avoid war. Chamberlain returned to cheering crowds in Britain and said: “I believe it is peace in our time.” A few months after the conference, Hitler broke the promise and ordered German troops to march into and take control of Czechoslovakia.

The Soviet Union lost faith in the ability of Britain and France to preserve peace with Germany, and made a pact with Germany to avoid war. Hitler quickly grew to believe that Britain and France would not honor their pledge to defend Poland against Germany. With the Soviet Union’s agreement to avoid war, Hitler felt he could move against Poland (which was sandwiched between Germany and the Soviet Union), launching an attack on September 1, 1939.

However, Britain and France promptly declared war on Germany for its attack on Poland, and World War II began. [Later, Hitler would break Germany’s pact with the Soviet Union by launching its invasion of the Soviet Union (Operation Barbarossa) on June 22, 1941.]

The Munich Agreement has become the world’s most utilized example of what is said to be “the ill-advised policy of appeasement,” or concession. After Munich, agreements with an aggressive nation were thought to invite war, rather than prevent it. Such an agreement is often referred to as “another Munich.”

In April 1940, German troops invaded Denmark and Norway. Neville Chamberlain subsequently resigned on May 10, 1940. Winston Churchill became Prime Minister.

Here is #666–Doc 1, about Winston Churchill’s May 10, 1940, ascension to the position of Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Daniel 7:21 (KJV) I beheld, and THE SAME HORN [the Daniel 7:8 Little Horn Nation of America] MADE WAR WITH THE [Church-ill] SAINTS, and prevailed against them;

Key Understanding (which is identical to what is in previous Unsealings #664–#665): Church-ill. The man considered to be the greatest of all men in England’s rich history was Great Britain’s World War II wartime prime minister, Winston Churchill. The Lord ordained for Churchill to have such a name and for him to fulfill such a gigantic historical role for the purpose of spiritually/prophetically representing the theme of Church-ill – as in “Church ill,” meaning an “ill Church.” The saints described in Daniel 7:21, against whom the Little Horn antichrist/antichrist nation prevail(s), are to be called the Church-ill saints, for Winston Churchill was ordained by the Lord to represent himself and other historical figures of antichrist who make war with the saints, and spiritually prevail against them.
