

#1831 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 90, The Great Colonial Hurricane of 1635: The reason why the Richard Mather family arrived in America amidst the Great Colonial Hurricane of 1635 is because the surname Mather is tied to grass, connecting the Mathers and the Great Colonial Hurricane of 1635 to Isaiah 40:6-8, representing the Lord blowing upon the people who are as grass

Mather and grass. The surname Mather is thought to be (from A Dictionary of Surnames) an occupational name for a mower or reaper of grass or hay, because the name Mather is derived from the Old English word moedere, meaning grass or hay (from The Encyclopedia of American Family Names). A Dictionary of Surnames also suggests that in some cases the surnames Mead and Mower come from the same Old English root word as that of Mather. The Richard Mather family – which included Richard Mather, Increase Mather, and Cotton Mather – is the primary example given for those whose surname is Mather.

Key Understanding: *The Great Colonial Hurricane of 1635 and the Mathers as grass. The reason why the Richard Mather family arrived in America in the midst of the Great Colonial Hurricane of 1635 is because the surname Mather is tied to grass, connecting the Mathers and the Great Colonial Hurricane of 1635 to Isaiah 40:6-8, representing the Lord blowing upon the people who are as grass. [The next several Unsealings will confirm this all the more.]
