

#1841 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 100, The Church-ill Hurricanes of 1635 and 1938: Why the two hurricanes struck New England

Question: Why did the Church-ill hurricanes of 1635 and 1938 both strike New England?

Key Understanding and Answer: The New England hurricanes. The Great New England Hurricane of September 21, 1938, could have seemingly made landfall anywhere in the United States and still held to its prophetic meaning surrounding Nazi Germany and the United States. However, because the prophetic meaning behind the Great New England Hurricane of 1938 was/is so closely attached to the theme of Church-ill, the Lord designed that the hurricane should be and would be linked with the very birth of the Church-ill United States, which, of course, occurred in Puritan New England. Therefore, the Church-ill hurricane of September 21, 1938, made landfall in New England, becoming prophetically linked with the simultaneous arrivals in New England of the Puritan Richard Mather and the Great Colonial Hurricane of 1635.
