

#1856 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 115, An Angel riding in the Whirlwind and directing the Storm: George W. Bush's inaugural address of January 20, 2001

The conclusion of George W. Bush's 2001 Presidential Inaugural Address:

After the Declaration of Independence was signed, Virginia statesman John Page wrote to Thomas Jefferson: “We know the race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong. Do you not think an angel rides in the whirlwind and directs this storm?”

Much time has passed since Jefferson arrived for his inaugural. The years and changes accumulate. But the themes of this day he would know: our nation's grand story of courage, and its simple dream of dignity.

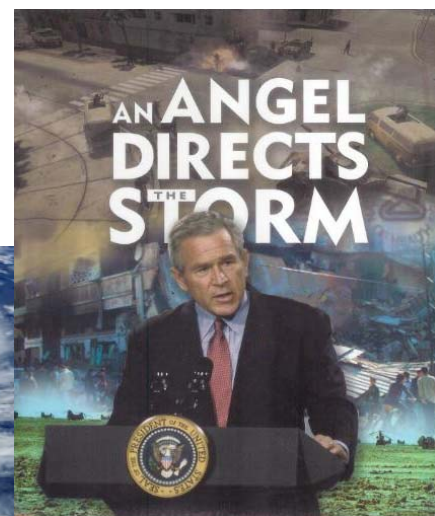

We are not this story's Author, Who fills time and eternity with His purpose. Yet His purpose is achieved in our duty; and duty is fulfilled in service to one another.

Never tiring, never yielding, never finishing, we renew that purpose today: to make our country more just and generous; to affirm the dignity of our lives and every life.

This work continues. This story goes on. And an angel still rides in the whirlwind and directs this storm.

God bless you, and God bless our country.

Key Understanding: “We know the race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong. Do you not think an angel rides in the whirlwind and directs this storm?” The full prophetic understanding surrounding George W. Bush's quote of Virginia statesman John Page in his inaugural address of January 20, 2001, encompasses three passages of scripture and the specific verses of Ecclesiastes 9:11 and Nahum 1:3 (clearly seen and understood by anyone who might research the quote) and Daniel 8:15-16 (not clearly seen and understood by someone who would research the quote).

Ecclesiastes 9:11 is clearly seen in George W. Bush's quote of John Page.

Ecclesiastes 9:11 (KJV) I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

Nahum 1:3 – which is in the midst of a passage that warns of the Lord's anger against Nineveh (representing the Assyrian Empire) – is also clearly seen in George W. Bush's quote of John Page.

Nahum 1:3 (KJV) The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

Daniel 8:15-16 are not clearly seen in George W. Bush's quote of John Page, but, unbeknownst to either George W. Bush or John Page, serve(d) as the essence of the reference to the "angel" who "rides in the whirlwind and directs this storm." [This will be discussed in the forthcoming Unsealings.]

*Daniel 8:15-16 (KJV) And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as THE APPEARANCE OF A MAN. [The appearance of a "man" in Daniel 8:15 is that of the archangel Gabriel who was sent by the Lord to interpret the vision of the ram and the he-goat in Daniel 8.]
16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, GABRIEL, MAKE THIS MAN TO UNDERSTAND THE VISION.*
