Review (from the previous Unsealing): The caged birds. Revelation 18:2 is in the same contextual passage of scripture as Revelation 18:5. Thus, it is clear to see that just as the Sennacherib vs. Hezekiah “like a bird in a cage” event of the siege of Jerusalem is prophetically tied to Revelation 18:5, it also would be tied to Revelation 18:2, revealing more about the meaning of Babylon the Great being, in the Lord’s eyes, the habitation of devils and “a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.”

Key Understanding: The unclean birds in a cage. In Revelation 18:2, the Lord characterizes Babylon the Great as “a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.” Because we have seen (above) that the early verses of Revelation 18 can be related to events surrounding the siege of Jerusalem by Sennacherib’s Assyria, leaving Hezekiah “like a bird in a cage,” the contrast can be seen between the Lord allowing Hezekiah to be represented as “a bird in a cage,” and thus it might be said, a clean bird in a cage in the Lord’s eyes, for Hezekiah was serving the Lord, and the Lord characterizing Babylon the Great as “a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.” What this means is that those of Babylon the Great assume roles similar to Hezekiah of being under the siege of “the Assyrians,” such as the Soviet Union, only these “Israelites” are counterfeits, and as such, are unclean birds in a cage. The sins of the unclean birds in a cage reached heaven on May 5, 1961, in the 185th year of American independence. [Of course, aviators often refer to their planes as birds, so it seems appropriate that unclean birds are used by the Lord in conjunction with Babylon’s sins reaching heaven through its race to the moon.]

*Revelation 18:1-6 (KJV) And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.
2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and A CAGE OF EVERY UNCLEAN AND HATEFUL BIRD.*

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For HER SINS HAVE REACHED UNTO HEAVEN, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.
