

#1933 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 192, The Assassination of John F. Kennedy, (xiii), Oswald: Repeat of Unsealing #404 about the First Oswald Head Wound

Key Understanding: A review of Unsealings #397–#408, which were a part of two back-to-back series titled The First Oswald Head Wound (Unsealings #397–#405) and The Second Oswald Head Wounds (Unsealings #406–#408), will help to establish why the Lord ordained the assassin of John F. Kennedy to be a man named Oswald. Below is a repeat of Unsealing #404.

#404 The First Oswald Head Wound – “In the Beginning”: James Lovell and Apollo 8, December 24, 1968

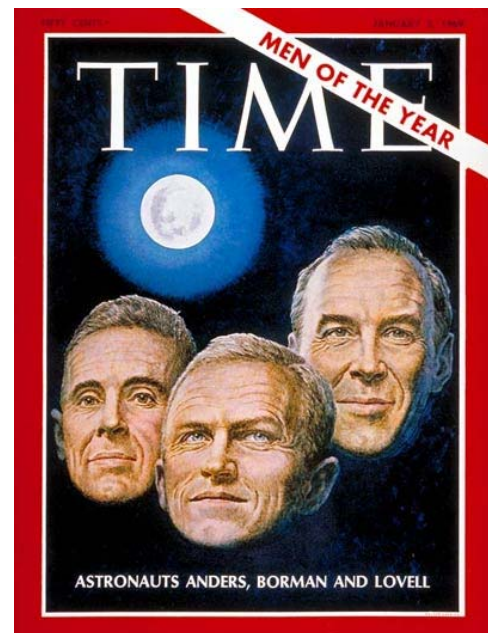

In addition to the Apollo 11 landing of American astronauts on the moon on July 20, 1969, the Lord also used the December 21-27, 1968, Apollo 8 flight as representative of the 8th Head Scarlet Beast's “space race to the moon” victory over the 7th Head Red Beast USSR. The Apollo 8 astronauts, Jim Lovell, Frank Borman, and William Anders, became the first three people in history to circle, and see the far side of, the moon. Let’s pick up the story from another source.

On the fourth day, Christmas Eve, communications were interrupted as Apollo 8 passed behind the moon, and the astronauts became the first men to see the moon’s far side. Later that day, during the evening hours in the United States, the crew read the first 10 verses of Genesis on television to earth and wished viewers “goodnight, good luck, a Merry Christmas and God bless all of you – all of you on the good earth.”

Subsequently, TV Guide [magazine] for May 10-16, 1969, claimed that one out of every four persons on earth – nearly 1 billion people in 64 countries – heard the astronauts’ reading and greeting, either on radio or on TV; and delayed broadcasts that same day reached 30 additional countries.

“In the beginning”: The Apollo 8 crew read the first 10 verses of Genesis

The Apollo 8 crew had chosen the first 10 verses of Genesis to read to the world in one of their revolutions of the moon (the ninth). Not only do the first 10 verses of Genesis represent the beginning of creation, and the beginning of the Bible, but the very first verse begins with “in the beginning.”

Genesis 1:1 (KJV) In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

The Two James Lovells. The Lord ordained two significant men in America’s history with the name of James Lovell to illustrate the prophetic relationship of (a) the defeat of the “forerunner” 7th Head Great Britain in the Revolutionary War, and (b) the defeat of the 7th Head Red Beast Soviet Union in the Cold War. They are respectively representing the “beginning” of America’s history and “the time of the end” seen in Daniel 12.

Key Understanding: *The prophetic reason behind the reading of Genesis 1:1-10 by the crew of Apollo 8. In order to clarify and verify “the time of the end” defeat of the 7th Head Red Beast Soviet Union – as defined by the “space race to the moon” – the Lord ordained that astronaut James Lovell and his fellow astronauts read to the world from the beginning of scripture in Genesis chapter 1 about the beginning of creation, which begins with “in the beginning.” (James Lovell, a Founding Father of the United States, represented “the beginning” of the 8th Head Scarlet Beast which would defeat Great Britain.) The Apollo 8 astronauts were reading “in the beginning” in scripture in the process of fulfilling the significant Space Race part of “the time of the end” defeat of the Soviet Union.*
