

#2069 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 328, Nuremberg Day of Judgment, (xxx), The Assassination of Abraham Lincoln: Abraham Lincoln is closely associated with (i) Booth and (ii) Thanksgiving because of the similarities between the Jewish Feast of Booths and the American ‘Christian’ Feast of Thanksgiving (continued)

Near the beginning of his last public address, on April 11, 1865, shortly after the April 9, 1865, surrender of Robert E. Lee and the Confederacy at Appomattox, Virginia, Abraham Lincoln stated that “a call for a national thanksgiving” was being prepared.

We meet this evening, not in sorrow, but in gladness of heart. The evacuation of Petersburg and Richmond, and the surrender of the principal insurgent army, give hope of a righteous and speedy peace whose joyous expression can not be restrained. In the midst of this, however, He, from Whom all blessings flow, must not be forgotten. A call for a national thanksgiving is being prepared, and will be duly promulgated.

Key Understanding: The Thanksgiving President. Consistent with his role as the ‘Thanksgiving President,’ and because of his prophetic role as a counterfeit type of ‘Feast of Booths’ Moses deliverer, Abraham Lincoln, on April 11, 1865, after the surrender of Robert E. Lee and the Confederate Army on April 9, 1865, and just three days before his April 14, 1865, assassination by John Wilkes Booth, stated that “a call for a national thanksgiving” was being prepared.

Here is #2069–Doc 1, Abraham Lincoln’s last public address. It is not ‘required’ or suggested that the entire address be read, but is offered for the sole purpose of reading the first paragraph and its reference to “a call for a national thanksgiving.”
