

#2131 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 390, The History of the Pale of Settlement, (xvii), How the city of Warsaw, the capital of Poland, became a part of the Pale of Settlement

Unsealings #2127–#2130 addressed the issue introduced in Unsealing #2126, a part of which is shown again directly below:

Review (from Unsealing #2126): The larger Pale of Settlement. The Polish Partitions ended in 1795. However, maps of the Pale of Settlement often include the central part of Poland, most of which was occupied by Prussia (Germany) and Austria, not Russia, directly after the Polish Partitions. An event occurred after 1795 that caused the central part of Poland to be included in the larger definition of the Pale of Settlement.

Key Understanding: The larger Pale of Settlement. The larger definition of the Pale of Settlement – which is the size of the Pale of Settlement most often depicted – included the central part of Poland and the city of Warsaw.

Revelation 6:8 (KJV)
And I looked, and behold
A PALE HORSE: and his name that sat on him
was DEATH, AND
HELL followed with him.
And power was given
unto them over the fourth
part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death,
and with the beasts of the earth.
