

#2458 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 717, Building the Christian-Jewish-Arab Temple, (xcvi), The Third Day of the Six-Day War

Key Understanding #1: *The third day of the Six-Day War. The themes of the Third Day, tied to raising up the temple, and the Sixth Day, tied to the creation of the world by the Lord, which are linked together at the end of the millennium, are also linked together preceding that time through the capture of the entirety of Jerusalem on the third day of the Six-Day War. In fact, and this will be addressed later, (i) the capture of the Old City, including the Western Wall (Wailing Wall), and the capture of the entirety of Jerusalem on the third day of the Six-Day War are themselves linked with (ii) the Third Day-Sixth Day theme attached to the end of the millennium.

Below is an abbreviated version of the events of the Six-Day War which appeared (in whole) previously in Unsealings #1399 and #2335 as a summary of daily events of the June 5-10, 1967, Six-Day War. In this abbreviated version, only the third day is shown, which astoundingly enough is 6/7 of '67.

Day Three, June 7: the capture of East Jerusalem and the Old City. Israeli troops penetrated the Old City of Jerusalem and held the Arab section. Israeli paratroopers prayed at the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem after capturing it from the Jordanians in fierce house to house fighting, while thousands of Jews caused a near-riot as they rushed to visit the holy site which politicians vowed would remain Israel's forever. Jordan accepted the U.N. ceasefire, having also lost Jericho and most of the West Bank. Israeli troops advanced across the Sinai to the Suez Canal and took the Egyptian fortress of Sharm el-Sheikh.

The green signifies the land captured by Israel in the Six-Day War. The Old City, the Western Wall (Wailing Wall), and the entirety of Jerusalem were secured on the third day.

Key Understanding #2: *June 7, 1967. The Old City and the entirety of Jerusalem were specifically gained on June 7, 1967, or 6/7 of '67, the third day of the Six-Day War.

Genesis 1:27 (KJV) SO GOD CREATED MAN in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Genesis 1:31 (KJV) And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were THE SIXTH DAY.

Key Understanding #3: The third day of the Six-Day War and the end of the millennium. Again, as was stated in Key Understanding #1, (i) the capture of the Old City, including the Western Wall (Wailing Wall), and the capture of the entirety of Jerusalem on the third day of the Six-Day War are themselves linked with (ii) the Third Day-Sixth Day theme attached to the end of the millennium. Each is tied to the theme of raising up the temple.
