Herschel Grynszpan and Kristallnacht

Besides David Green (David Ben-Gurion), another green – Herschel Greenspan (Grynszpan) – is prominent in the history of the Jews in the 20th century.

On November 7, 1938, 17-year-old Herschel Grynszpan, in response to his parents' deportation from Germany to Poland, assassinated a Nazi embassy worker in Paris. This triggered Kristallnacht of November 9-10, 1938, an event that many consider to represent the real beginning of the Holocaust.
