

#2705 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 964, Palm Beach to Judging Pretender Babylon, (vi), Al Gore: *Take it from me, if it [Election 2000] had ended differently, we would not be bogged down in Iraq

Former Vice President Al Gore spoke Thursday night, August 28, 2008, at the Democratic National Convention at Invesco Field in Denver, Colorado.

Here are the opening words of Al Gore's speech:

One of the greatest gifts of our democracy is the opportunity it offers us every four years to change course. It's not a guarantee; it's only an opportunity. The question facing us, simply put, is will we seize this opportunity for change?

That's why I came here tonight: to tell you why I feel so strongly that we must seize this opportunity to elect Barack Obama president of the United States of America.

Eight years ago, some said there was not much difference between the nominees of the two major parties and it didn't really matter who became president. Our nation was enjoying peace and prosperity, and some assumed we would continue both, no matter the outcome. But here we all are in 2008, and I doubt anyone *would argue now that election didn't matter. Take it from me, if it had ended differently, we would not be bogged down in Iraq;

Key Understanding: Al Gore and the war in Iraq.

At the Democratic National Convention in Denver, Colorado, on August 28, 2008, Al Gore made it clear that if he would have been elected President of the United States in the 'Palm Beach' election of 2000, the United States (the real Babylon the Great) would not have attacked and defeated the Saddam Hussein regime (the pretender Babylon the Great).

(i) The 'Palm Beach' election of 2000 is entirely linked with (ii) the defeat of the Saddam Hussein regime of Iraq, which was in the role of pretender Babylon the Great.

Revelation 19:1-2 (KJV) And after these things I heard A GREAT VOICE OF MUCH PEOPLE IN HEAVEN, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgments: FOR HE HATH JUDGED THE GREAT WHORE [Babylon the Great], which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.
