

#2737 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 996, Palm Beach to Judging Pretender Babylon, (xxxviii), Reading the Writing on the Wall: 58 years between (a) May 8, 1945, V-E Day, and (b) the March 19, 2003, start of the Iraq War that led to V-I Day

V-I Day. Just as May 8, 1945, was proclaimed V-E Day (Victory in Europe Day) in World War II, April 9, 2003, was widely proclaimed as V-I Day (Victory in Iraq Day) during the Iraq War.

Key Understanding: Reading the writing on the wall for pretender Babylon the Great. There were 58 years (less 2 months, then add 11 days) between (a) V-E Day on May 8, 1945, and (b) the March 19, 2003, start of the Iraq War, which rapidly led to V-I Day on April 9, 2003. The 58 years point to Daniel 5:8 and the ‘writing on the wall’ for the regime of Saddam Hussein, in the role as a second Babylon (pretender Babylon the Great), with America in the role of a second (but counterfeit) Media-Persia.

Daniel 5:7-8 (KJV) The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall READ THIS WRITING, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. 8 Then came in all the king’s wise men: but they could not READ THE WRITING, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

Here is #2737–Doc 1, about V-I Day, April 9, 2003, in Baghdad. There is no need to read the article. It is primarily here for the purpose of illustrating that April 9, 2003, was quickly and generally proclaimed as V-I Day during the Iraq War.
