

#2832 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 1091, Jackson Wild Ass Men, (xvii), The Republican Party was named in Jackson, Michigan, a city named after Andrew Jackson, founder of the Democratic Party

Key Understanding #1: The naming of the Republican Party occurred on July 6, 1854, in Jackson, Michigan, a city founded in 1829 and named after Andrew Jackson, “founder” of the Democratic Party.

The Republican Party and Jackson, Michigan. The Republican Party was birthed in the early 1850’s by anti-slavery activists and individuals who believed that government should grant western lands to settlers free of charge. The party’s first informal meeting took place in Ripon, Wisconsin, a small town northwest of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The first official Republican meeting occurred on July 6, 1854, in Jackson, Michigan, with David S. Walbridge serving as chairman. At this meeting, the name “Republican” was chosen because it alluded to equality and reminded individuals of Thomas Jefferson’s Democratic-Republican Party. At the Jackson convention, the new party adopted a platform and nominated candidates for office in Michigan.

In 1856, the Republicans became a national party when John C. Fremont was nominated for President of the United States under the slogan: “Free soil, free labor, free speech, free men, Fremont.” Even though the Republicans were considered a “third party” because the Democrats and Whigs represented the two-party system at the time, Fremont received 33% of the vote. Four years later, Abraham Lincoln became the first Republican to win the White House.

*Job 11:12 (KJV) For vain man would be wise, THOUGH MAN BE BORN [with a natural birthright to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness] LIKE
A WILD ASS'S [Jack's] COLT [son].*

Key Understanding #2: Republicans and Democrats. The Lord ordained the Republican Party to hold its first convention and receive its name in Jackson, Michigan, a city which in turn was named after Andrew Jackson, “founder” of the Democratic Party, to illustrate that the spirit of the modern day Republicans is identical to the spirit of the modern day Democrats. In the Lord’s eyes, there is no difference between a Republican and a Democrat. Both are fallen. Each represents *man being born like a wild ass’s colt.
